Invitation to Review Pharmaceutical Care Guidelines

The invitation to review pharmaceutical care guidelines is a fantastic opportunity for our GAPNA membership to impact directly the prescribing habits of providers working with older adults. Serving on this review panel is a wonderful way to update your knowledge, build your skills in reviewing AND to build your curriculum vitae or resume! You can review any single, multiple or the entire formulary — so there are plenty of opportunities to shine where you are most knowledgeable! Please consider this opportunity and be sure to let GAPNA know if you are accepted.

GNP Role/30-Year History Still Available Online!

Remember to order your own copy of this epic monograph through Amazon at www.amazon.com. Encourage your chapter to order copies for each NP program in your area so the history of our role will be preserved.

This exclusive publication is 50 pages and soft cover, including color photos and four reprinted Geriatric Nursing GAPNA section articles. It is the only comprehensive review of the beginnings of gerontological nursing and Gero advanced practice nursing, pre-1981; significant events of each decade the Gero APN role and of the NCGNP/GAPNA organization, 1981-1991, 1991-2001, and 2001-2011; and the future of Gero APN role and the organization — all for only $25. Proceeds from the publication help fund the GAPNA Archives to preserve our rich history for future generations of GAPNs.

Share Conference Educational Sessions with a Friend

GAPNA is pleased to offer you the ability to share access to the Conference Educational Sessions with your friends, staff or colleagues. You can share access with up to 3 additional users. Simply log into Prolibraries.com/gapna, watch the recorded sessions, click the link on the left hand side under 'Your Account' that says "Share Your Content", enter the name and email address of the person you wish to share the session with, then click "Invite". The system will email that person instructions and a code that will allow them access to the sessions. Please note that CNE's for sessions shared are not included but can be purchased separately. If you need help, contact the support people at Digitell.

Providing Care to the LGBT Community - Session 321 Available Online

Did the reward of pharmacology credit distract you from the session you really wanted to attend at the Annual Conference? Session 321, "Culturally Competent Advanced Nursing Care for Older Adults in the LGBT Community", will soon be available for review online. Meeting attendees have free access to the session and can receive 1.5 CNE through 09/21/2015. This is a great opportunity to enhance your knowledge of the health disparities and unique need of the older LGBT community.

You are subscribed to GAPNA's eAlert, a publication for GAPNA members and colleagues. From time-to-time, you will receive an e-mail such as this one with important news and information relevant to gerontological nursing. If you wish to update your email address, please do so by editing your profile on the GAPNA website. If you would like to unsubscribe from the GAPNA eAlert, click here.

The Gerontological Advanced Practice Nurses Association (GAPNA) is the organization of choice for advanced practice nurses who want to pursue continuing education in gerontological care and who seek peer support from experienced clinicians.
